CONNECTING WITH PEOPLE

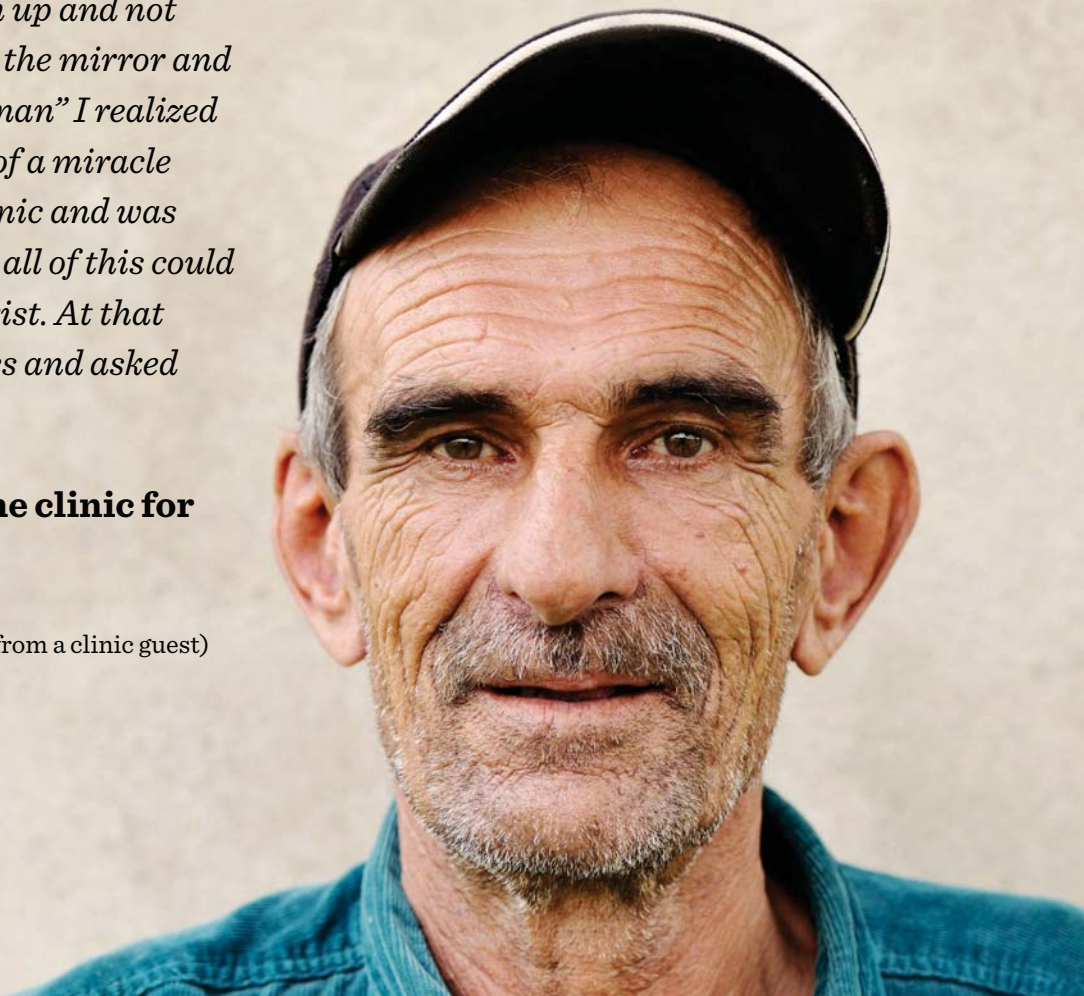

2013 CLINICS SURVEY REPORT:

- 96% of guests surveyed felt they had a meaningful conversation with a volunteer the day of the clinic.
- 70% of guests surveyed wanted some form of follow up after the clinic (Pray for me, Invite me to Church, Meet with me)
- 98% of guests surveyed strongly agreed (5 out of 5) that they felt respected at the clinics.

“This morning was the first time in over 5 years that I have woken up and not been in pain.” Looking in the mirror and seeing myself as a “new man” I realized that it was only because of a miracle that I heard about the clinic and was able to get there and that all of this could only have come from Christ. At that moment I got on my knees and asked Jesus into my life”

“Thank everyone at the clinic for being angels.”

FOSTER CARE

We are helping unite churches to participate in events that bring light and hope to children and families in the foster care system. The partnership between the faith community and local DHS offices is becoming stronger through acts of love and relationship building such as DHS office makeovers.

DHS MAKEOVERS

"You've given these families a safe, clean and exciting place to build and strengthen their bonds. Not to mention a huge boost in the employee morale. The lunch room was packed today with happy workers. We feel loved and respected and so do our clients. Just took one of the favorite families back to the Timber's room and you should have seen the look on the boy's faces... pure JOY!"

ABOLITION NOW

ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Through Abolition Now and Adorned in Grace volunteers have the opportunity to participate in a regional network raising awareness and mentoring young girls in struggling communities. They also run a dress shop that supports anti-trafficking work.

ADORNED IN GRACE 2013

3,060+ volunteer hours, 758 gowns donated, $7,380 value of dresses given away (to survivors and at-risk girls), 58 at-risk girls and trafficked victims served, 15 adult survivors and girls currently in mentoring relationships

Design Studio Projected Completion Date

FEBRUARY 20TH, 2014

Total $ Raised for Anti-Human Trafficking

$85,762

“Two Design Studio volunteers shared their own stories: one of being abducted, drugged and trafficked for two years in her early teens and the other of being born to a 13-year old victim of commercial sexual exploitation and raised in foster care. A long line of girls, many in tears, ran to hug them afterwards and could hardly let go. It meant so much that so many of the adult volunteers understood their pain and gave selflessly so that they could be blessed and encouraged”
