

Volunteer Role Descriptions

Mentor (year-long, weekly commitment)

- Build relationships with attendees.
- Engage attendees in conversations about their lives.
- Lead discussion/devotional time.
- Plan weekly activities with other mentors.
- According to your comfort level, reach out to attendees outside of C.Y.M. (text to check in, attend a school activity, take them out for coffee, etc)
- Pray for the kids in your care and for your fellow mentors.

Lead Mentor (in addition to the above responsibilities)

- Strive to follow the servant leader model of Jesus
- Communicate with and motivate team members to ensure all aspects of planning and running a workshop are covered and duties divided among the team. .
- Bring enthusiasm, creativity, and vision to your team to best equip and engage youth.
- Inspire fellow mentors to be creative in coming up with plans for your C.Y.M. group
- Encourage the mentor team to work together to make sure all necessary duties are completed to run a thriving C.Y.M. group.

Teacher (one-time commitment or more, depending on your availability)

- Teach a life skill such as dance, sewing, business, woodworking, drama, computer science, photography, nutrition, music, cooking, exercise, etc.

Driver (one-time commitment or more, depending on your availability)

- Pick up kids at school or home and bring to C.Y.M.
- Stay for a workshop or return at the end to bring kids home.

Snacks (one-time commitment or more, depending on your availability)

- Bring homemade or purchased snacks or meals on a one-time basis, weekly or bi-weekly.
- Stay for workshops or drop off snacks (snacks can be dropped off ahead of time.)

Inventory Management (one-time commitment or more, depending on your availability)

- Organize and keep track of C.Y.M. supplies.
- Let a C.Y.M. staff member know when supplies need to be replenished.

Cleaning Inside and Grounds (one-time commitment or more, depending on your availability)

- Help keep the C.Y.M. meeting space clean so it continues to be a peaceful place for the kids to hang out.
- Grounds: tidy up the yard. Spread bark, pull weeds, plant flowers. Build a raised garden bed for the kids to plant vegetables.

For more information, please contact CYM@CompassionConnect.com or text 971-231-4823.

